

THE TOOL OF LIMITLESS POSSIBILITIES

Fein invented the first ever power tool over 130 years ago. These innovative German made industrial quality machines will repay their cost time and time again. The quiet oscillating movement allows recoil and vibration free operation with high stock removal rates whilst providing the very highest standards of safety to the operator. A single machine will saw, sand, scrape, rasp, polish, cut and even consolidate concrete. The HSS blades will cut accurate square holes through fibreglass without dust, the deck blades will effectively remove old Sikaflex and deck caulking and the finger sanders will get to places no other machine can. Highly recommended.
